

Judgements-or-Liens (1).mov

At Bowman Law. We're here to offer a helping hand. If you're facing a lawsuit over past debts, or if a judgment has been obtained against you. The moment you're threatened with legal action or find yourself the target of a lawsuit, it's crucial to respond swiftly. The consequences of a creditor's judgment can be severe, leading to garnished wages up to 25%, frozen bank accounts, invasive court orders demanding a disclosure of all of your assets. Even more distressing, creditors can place liens against your home or other properties. However, there is a light at the end of the tunnel. Consulting with the Bowman attorney promptly can open the door to solutions like bankruptcy, which have the power to halt garnishments, prevent levies, and protect your home from creditors. Bankruptcy can be a strategic move to safeguard your finances and bring peace back into your life. Don't let the fear of lawsuits and judgments overwhelm you. Reach out to us today. Let's explore how we can shield your assets and relieve the pressure from the aggressive creditors. Remember, at the Bowman Law firm, we will help you as more than just a saying. It's our commitment to you.