

We accept your group legal insurance plan.

Many people have group legal insurance or group legal discount plans through their work, union or other organization. Boleman Law is an approved legal network provider for most plans.

Union and Organization Plans

70% of Americans will need to consult an attorney this year.

Unfortunately, many people will not get the representation they need, believing that it is too expensive or intimidating.

However, for people with a group legal insurance plan, it's as easy as making a phone call.

The coverage may vary depending on the individual plan, so check carefully.
