

Bankruptcy stops foreclosure, repossession and garnishments.

People with overwhelming debt are often faced with legal consequences. Bankruptcy is legal protection that helps them get a fresh financial start.

Bankruptcy stops foreclosure.

In Virginia the only sure way to stop a foreclosure is through the U.S. Bankruptcy Court. The same day the bankruptcy is filed, the mortgage company is notified and the foreclosure is stopped.

If you have received a foreclosure notice, call to meet with a skilled, experienced bankruptcy lawyer immediately. Boleman Law offers a free consultation with an attorney to review your situation and advise you of your legal rights.

There are a number of legal protections that can be used. Boleman Law is the largest bankruptcy law firm in Virginia.

Make an appointment with a Boleman Law attorney. We will help you.

Bankruptcy stops vehicle repossession.

Just about everyone needs their car or truck to get to work, look for a job, go to the store and other important activities. You can't afford to lose it.

If you are behind on your payments, or about to miss a payment, call Boleman Law immediately and make a free appointment to meet with an experienced bankruptcy attorney to discuss your legal options.

We may be able to dramatically lower your vehicle payment interest rate, stop repossession or even get a "locked" vehicle turned back on.

The sooner you make an appointment the sooner we will be able to help you.

Bankruptcy stops wage garnishments.

You don't need a garnishment, especially if you're living paycheck to paycheck.

If you receive notice of a garnishment, call Boleman Law as soon as possible and make a free appointment with a skilled bankruptcy lawyer. We'll review your situation and fully explain your legal options.

These include stopping the garnishment immediately and working to control other debts that are contributing to your high stress and constant worry.

Call now. We will help you.

Bankruptcy stops harassing collection calls and letters.

Afraid to answer the phone or open the mail because it might be a from bill collector? Losing sleep and stressed out?

Bankruptcy stops those distressing letters and calls. You'll have the chance to make a fresh financial start and get your life back.

Boleman Law is the bankruptcy specialist. Since 1991 we have helped more than 106,000 Virginians regain their financial health.

We will help you.

Richmond 804.355.2057

Interstate Center, 2104 W Laburnum Ave Suite 201, Richmond, VA 23227

Virginia Beach 757.313.3000

Convergence Center III, 272 Bendix Road, Suite 330, Virginia Beach, VA 23452

Hampton 757.825.5577

2 Eaton Street, Suite 106, (Corner of Settlers Landing), Hampton, VA 23669

John R. Bollinger

John Bollinger is the Vice President and Partner in Charge of the Hampton Office. He has been practicing bankruptcy law since 2000 and joined Boleman Law in 2004. He specializes in complex consumer bankruptcy issues.

John is a frequent speaker and panelist on bankruptcy issues at local, regional and national organizations. He has addressed the American Bankruptcy Institute (ABI), J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College, T. C. Williams School of Law, Virginia Bar Association (VBA), Tidewater Bankruptcy Bar Association (TBBA), Virginia Governors Conference on Housing, the National Association of Chapter Thirteen Trustees, Virginia Trial Lawyer's Association, as well as a number of civic and business organizations